A Vincennes (Ind.) special says: Sheriff John A. Padgett, of Shoales, Martin county, Ind., arrived here Mon-A vinceume (tad) special asystal and general formiture in society of the special and the special control of the sp mains of the missing man. THE CONFESSION. Time passed on. Bunch was not found. Sunday Mrs. Archer, wife of John B. Archer, turned up. She had been at the poorhouse in Martin county for several weeks. On Sunday she told the superintendent that she knew all about Bunch's disappearance. She said one day her husband, John B. Archer, inveigled Bunch down to the banks of Lost river and murdered him and threw him in. When the people dragged the river, the Archers got scared and took out the body, put it in the boiler of the engine of an old port-able saw-mill, boiled it for two days and nights, and then took out the bones and placed them in a grave beneath a coffin. Here the body of Bunch was allowed to rest but a few days, when it was again taken un and placed somewhere else, Mrs. Archer knowing not where. She said all the men above mentioned were implicated in the crime. Her affidavit was taken by Prosecuting-Attorney McCormick and warrants issued for all the above charged with the murder of Bunch. Sheriff Padgett this afternoon went after John B. Archer, who, Mrs.

Archer said, lived on the farm of Leroy Boyd, five miles south of Vincennes, Padgett, in company with a deputy.

ARCHER SHOWS FIGHT. Archer was making rails. Padgett showed him the warrant, when Archer declared he would not go, and went to the house, got his gun, and ordered the efficers off the premises. The Barons de Rothschild were induced to head the subscription under false pretances. They have been the tools and victius of a syndicate composed of half a dozen Parisian picture-dealers, a surjesity-dealer who lives in Cologne, an ex-auctioneer, and a so-called art critic, who is not dabbling in old mastern for the first time. This syndicate bought two medicers pictures at the Hamilton-Palsee sale, and they had a large stock remaining over from their speculations in the San-Donato sale, which was one of the most barefaced hemburgs ever perpetrated. Prince Demidoff made the mistake of lending his name to the syndicate which or-ganized the sale. He took all his best objects to Pratolino, and for his rub-bish and general furniture he received in cash 1,700,000 francs, and thence-
